

We toured the Michigan Historical Museum in Lansing on August 21 as planned. Thanks to Board Member Charlene Crosby for making this event come about. There were 8 in the group and we all learned new information about Michigan. The Museum is open to anyone for a small fee. For those interested in the Michigan Archive information you can go directly to that room at no cost.

